

LITERARY ITEMS.

The Indépendance Belge states that the Emperor Napoleon is at this moment collecting materials for the history of Charlemagne, which will be published after "Vie de Charlemagne."

A collection of the correspondence of Josiah Wedgwood with royal personages, as well as with Charles James Fox, Wilberforce, Sir William Hamilton, &c.—numbering about 1,500 letters—was lately knocked down for 2000*s* at a sale of autograph MSS., Sotheby & Wilkinson's.

A new sort of vivarium, destined probably to interest a good many things offered to people who are devoted to classification, will appear at the forthcoming Paris Exhibition. "Our Committee of Council on Education," says

The London Publishers' Circular, "have determined to exhibit a complete collection of our periodical literature, containing one specimen of each newspaper, review, literary, and scientific journal, magazine, &c., of the English-speaking world, printed in the Colonies during the past year. Many street bibles, which future Maccanays may find not altogether worthless, are included in the collection, to which all publishers and authors contributing have consented to contribute."

It is to be regretted that we do not hear of chance immortality by not being alive when the "Dunciad" was written.

BOOKS RECEIVED.

The Office of the Holy Communion in the Book of Common Prayer is in the Church of St. John the Evangelist, Paddington, by Edward Meyers.

Prayer Book of the Major's Chaplains in Ordinary. Adapted by the author to the Communicant Office according to the use of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

Fredrick the Great and His Court. A Historical Romance. By L. Muller, author of "Joseph II." and his Court." Translated from the German by Mrs. Chapman Colman and her daughter.

The State of the Church and the World at the Final Outbreak of Evil and Revolution. By A. J. F. Joffre. By Rev. J. G. Greenly, A. A. Walker, and others. Price, 2s. 6d. Philadelphia: T. B. Peterson & Brothers.

Books Received. In the Lives of Great Men. By James S. Clayton. Boston: Houghton, Mifflin & Co.

Two vols. post-free, £1. 10s. 6d. London and New York: Alexander Strahan.

Works of the Church. Historical Notes on Deacons and Subdeacons. By J. M. Lubbock. Price, 2s. The Same.

Vignettes. Two elegant Sketches. By Jessie Bayley.

The Higher Education of Women. By Emily Davies. Price, 1s.

Life and Times of John Milton. By W. Carew Marryat, esq. 12s. 6d. American Art Society.

Grammatical Analyzer. On the Derivation and Definition of Words, with their Analytical Classification. By W. J. Turner. Price, 2s. D. Appleton & Co.

The Metric System. A Companion, consisting of Extracts from the Reports of the Committee of Representatives, and the Law of Congress adopting it as a System, and Tables of authorized Weights and Measures; and a Translation of a portion of a Report of the Royal Commission on Weights and Measures, by M. Lippincott. Price, 2s. Philadelphia: J. B. Lippincott & Co.

New Publications.

CARLETON PUBLISHER. 413
Broadway, New York.
THE NEW BOOKS.

Helen Courtney—A new novel by Author "Vernon Grove". $1. 75

Mount Calvary, with Meditations in Sacred Places. $2. 00

Tales upon Trust—A new English novel. $1. 50

Festivities with Little Friends—By Martha H. Butt. $1. 75

The Mountain—A new novel by Mrs. Heneck. $1. 75

The House by the Churchyard—New English novel. $1. 50

Our Neighbors—T. S. Arthur's new novel. $1. 50

Among the Gorillas—Edmund Kiefer's new book. $1. 50

* These books are all heavily bound in cloth—sold every where—and will be sent by mail on receipt of price, by CARLETON, Price, 2s. New York.

A NEW POEM—SLIGHTLY SATIRICAL, entitled
M O S E S ;
or
The man who supposes
Himself to be Moses
No Moses is he.

In which Andrew Jackson, the Devil, the Monk, is proved to be a demon and a cheat. It is also most conclusively shown that Seward is not Abraham Lincoln and Ward is not Koch and his company.
It is also shown that the Devil is not the Devil, and that the Devil is not the Devil's Servant. Quotations are not "dead ducks," &c., &c.

PREFAVE.

"That Andy Jackson is a man he's a son of a—Moses."
As certain folks don't seem to know it,
Presto! with that trifling book to show it.
And when you're done, you won't be
That Andy is as much like Moses
As the dudson between the flood,
Without a drop of water, blood, or mud.

For sale at the office of THE AMERICAN NEWS COMPANY, No. 121 Nassau-st., New York; D. EDWARDS, No. 9 Beekman-st., and of all newsdealers.

JUST PUBLISHED:

M R. WINKFIELD.
A NOVEL.

Paper Cover.

PRICE, 25c.

THE AMERICAN NEWS COMPANY,

Publishers for the Author,

No. 119 and 121 Nassau-st.

N E AILY READY—New Volume of BANCROFT'S HISTORY—LITTLE, BROWN & CO., No. 116 Washington-st., Boston, will publish, October 1, 1866.

Vol. IX. OF BANCROFT'S HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES.

Embracing the period from July, 1776, to April, 1778, and including the following subjects, name:

The Declaration of Independence—Its Effect in Europe—The Battle of Saratoga—The Capture of Canada—The Embarkments of America—The Course of Opinion in England—Border War North and South—White Plains—New Washington—Retreat of the British—The Battle of Monmouth—The Capture of the States—Preparations in Europe and America for the Campaign of 1777—Evacuation of New Jersey by the British—Adventures of the American Troops in the Southern States—Retirement of Burgoyne—The Confederation of the Valley.

CARPENTER'S BOOK is a SUCCESS.

THE INNER LIFE OF ABRAHAM LINCOLN,
FIFTH THOUSAND PRINTING.

SIX MONTHS AT THE WHITE HOUSE WITH ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

—This is a record of friendly conversations, in which the true and goodness of the martyred President show forth a very valuable contribution to literature, and, perhaps, the best picture we have of Mr. Lincoln's inner life.

Send by mail, prepaid, for 2s. HURD & HUGHTON, Publishers, No. 429 Broadway, New York.

THE MORMON PROPHET AND HIS Harem.

With Illustrations. 1 vol. 12mo. $2.

HURD & HUGHTON, Publishers, No. 429 Broadway, New York.

THE MORMON PROPHET AND HIS Harem.

With Illustrations. 1 vol. 12mo. $2.

HURD & HUGHTON, Publishers, No. 429 Broadway, New York.

THE N. Y. COACHMAKERS' MONTHLY MAGAZINE.

AZIN, Vol. V, No. 5, Oct., 1866.

—This Magazine is now ready.

The Magazine, which has become a favorite with the crafts, gives under the heading of "Technical Library," Books and Tracts on various subjects of the Drama—Fiction—Poetry—Tragedy—History—Literature—Religion—Philosophy—Diplomatic—Political—Ecclesiastical—&c.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and his work is well done.

—The editor of this Magazine is a man of great knowledge and experience, and